Bound Tree Corporation
EMS Unit of the Year Award

History: The New Hampshire Emergency Medical Services Unit of the Year award is an award sponsored by Bound Tree Corporation of Henniker, NH who has been serving EMS' Best and making precious minutes count for over 20 years. 1998 was the first year that the award was to be presented.

Purpose: The Award has been created to recognize a New Hampshire Licensed EMS Unit for exemplary service to their community.

Presentation: The Award will be presented by a member of the EMS Medical & Trauma Coordinating Board at an annual public Emergency Medical Services System function.

Nominations: Licensed EMS Units, New Hampshire Hospital EMS Coordinators and associated organizations shall be notified once per year that the nominations for the Award are being accepted by the Awards Committee. The deadline for nominations shall be determined by the Bureau of EMS and only nominations received by that deadline will be considered.

Awards Committee: The Awards Committee shall be made up of a minimum of two Bureau employees, a member of the EMS Medical Control Board, a member of the EMS Medical & Trauma Coordinating Board and a member from Bound Tree Corporation. These members shall review all nominations, decide on the recipient(s) and arrange for the award presentation.

Criteria for Nomination: Nominations will be considered for any New Hampshire Licensed EMS Unit which has documented a significant positive impact in their community. The act(s) may have been while delivering patient care, public relations and education, prevention programs, or other related activities. Documentation should be limited to two typed pages and should accompany the nomination form.
